

Where can I find agriculture related classes and workshops?

Looking for additional training? There are many resources in Pierce County that will help you find classes, workshops, and information to help you run your farm. To visit a webpage, click on the title or copy and paste the link into your browser.

Pierce Conservation District

The Pierce Conservation District offers many workshops on agricultural activities, from fertilizing your pasture to choosing and maintaining equipment.

<http://www.piercecountycd.org/297/Farm-Workshops>

Pierce County Agriculture Program

The Pierce County Agriculture Program host a Farm Forum bi-annually and workshops throughout the year on topics that a farmer cares about. Topics range from water rights and drainage concerns to a farm to table trade workshop and food hubs. Upcoming workshops are posted on website.

<http://www.co.pierce.wa.us/index.aspx?NID=3421>

Washington State University Extension – Cultivating Success

The Cultivating Success program combines classroom and on-farm learning experiences to help foster the success of new and existing small and mid-scale farms and ranches.

<http://cultivatingsuccess.org/>

Washington State University Small Farms Team

The Small Farms Team provides research-based information and a variety of links to educational opportunities provided by the Washington State University.

<http://smallfarms.wsu.edu/>

Tilth Producers of Washington

The Tilth Producers of Washington provides links for information and education resources, and business planning.

<http://tilthproducers.org/>

The list is for informational purposes only. It is not complete, and does not constitute an endorsement.

