

Prevalence of Behavioral Health Needs

Pierce County

vs.

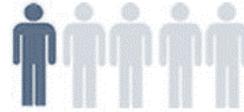

Washington State

The Nation

How Do They Compare?

adults with a mental health condition

one in five
Pierce County

one in five
in the nation

youth 12-17 – major depressive episode in the past year

national average

10th graders – so sad or hopeless for 2 weeks or more they stopped doing usual activities

national average

adults – mental health was “not good” for 2 of past 4 weeks

Washington state average

suicide rate

18.5
per 100,000

15.4
per 100,000

Washington state average

substance use

youth 12-17 – marijuana use in the past year

18.4%

13.4%

national average

trauma factors

violent crime rate

5.1
per 1,000

3.2
per 1,000

Washington state average

homicide rate

4.3
per 100,000

2.6
per 100,000

Washington state average

Pierce County also has the highest domestic violence rate in the state 1,000 per 100,000 and

32.3%
rise in opiate-related deaths (2002-2013)

